LETTER FROM ARTISTIC DIRECTORS

To Our Past, Present and Future Subscribers:

It is with great excitement that we announce our 2012/13 season, when we will take the stage in our new home at the Toronto Centre for the Arts. We are thrilled to be moving closer to you, our audience.

In our 6th season, we will continue to embrace and celebrate the Jewish story by offering 4 exceptional plays. This year is sure to be an incredible year of theatre.

We are honoured to co-produce The Whipping Man with Obsidian Theatre Company and Falsettos with Acting Up Stage Company. Each of these companies represents excellence in Canadian theatre and we look forward to working with them both.

Our Conversation on the Green series will continue with stimulating guests speaking about how Jewish culture has influenced their lives and careers.

We are also extremely excited to announce a partnership with the Ashkenaz Festival. Together we will be presenting 2 add-ons to our season. The first is a provocative dance piece called The Corpse Bride, which will be part of the Ashkenaz Summer Festival. The second is a Jewish Evening of Song that will celebrate the talent of the amazing Mitch Smolkin. Both of these add-ons will compliment your subscription in the most entertaining of ways.

Let's celebrate our culture together in our new home with the most exciting of theatre.

We hope you will join us as a subscriber and we look forward to seeing you at the theatre. We know you'll enjoy every moment!

David Eisner and Avery Saltzman

THE SIMON WIESENTHAL STORY

HAROLD GREEN JEWISH THEATRE COMPANY presents

NAZI HUNTER THE SIMON WIESENTHAL STORY

October 9 to October 18, 2012
Studio Theatre at the Toronto Centre for the Arts

Written and performed by Tom Dugan
Directed by Jenny Sullivan

A powerful one-man show nominated for three LA Ovation Awards, including Best Director, Best Play and Best Leading Actor! The story follows Wiesenthal, sometimes called "The Jewish James Bond", and recounts—like a gripping spy thriller—how this heroic man, after escaping death at the hands of Hitler's S.S., devoted his life to bringing war criminals to justice. Told with warmth, insight and surprising humour, this critically acclaimed production stars Tom Dugan, who himself has a personal connection to the story.

THE WHIPPING MAN

THE WHIPPING MAN

CANADIAN PREMIERE

March 16 to April 14, 2013
Studio Theatre at the Toronto Centre for the Arts

Produced in association with Obsidian Theatre
Written by Matthew Lopez
Directed by Philip Akin

Starring: Sterling Jarvis, Daniel Brière and Thomas Olajide

It is Passover, 1865. The Civil War has just ended and the annual celebration of freedom from bondage is being observed in Jewish homes across the country. One of these homes, belonging to the DeLeons of Virginia, sits in ruins. Confederate officer

Caleb DeLeon has returned from the war to find his family missing and only two former slaves, who were also raised Jewish, remaining. Caleb is badly wounded and the two men, Simon and John, are forced to care for him. As the three men wait for the family's return, they wrestle with their shared past as master and slave, digging up long-buried family secrets along the way as well as new ones. Slavery and war, they discover, warp even good men's souls.

FALSETTOS

April 23 to May 12, 2013
Regent Park Arts and Cultural Centre

Music and lyrics by William Finn
Book by William Finn and James Lapine
Directed by Robert McQueen
Music Direction by Reza Jacobs
Choreographed by Tim French

"Exhilarating and heartbreaking." – New York Times

Set against the backdrop of the post sexual-revolution and the emergence of AIDS, Falsettos tells the story of Marvin, a Jewish father who - in 1979 - leaves his wife and son for another man. Told with great humour and spirit, this Tony® and Drama Desk award-winning musical, breathtakingly depicts the birth of a non-traditional family amidst a time of astonishing change.
